

A Guide to the Development of on-Site Sanitation, © WHO, 1992

http://www.who.int/docstore/water\_sanitation\_health/onsitesan/begin.htm

---

Return to Water, Sanitation and Health web site

Table of Contents

---

Acknowledgments

Preface

Part I - Foundations of sanitary practice

Chapter 1 - The need for on-site sanitation

Chapter 2 - Sanitation and disease transmission

Chapter 3 - Social and cultural considerations

Chapter 4 - Technical options

Part II - Detailed design, construction, operation and maintenance

Chapter 5 - Technical factors affecting excrete disposal

Chapter 6 - Operation and maintenance of on-site sanitation

Chapter 7 - Components and construction of latrines

Chapter 8 - Design examples

Part III - Planning and development of on-site sanitation projects

Chapter 9 - Planning

Chapter 10 - Institutional, economic and financial factors

Chapter 11 - Development

References

Selected further reading

Glossary of terms used in this book

ANNEX 1 - Reuse of excrete

ANNEX 2 - Sullage

ANNEX 3 - Reviewers